3. Read the following passage and answer the questions : (any two)

There seems to be a general opinion in this country that Sardar Patel was rather of a harsh and rough temperament. Men call him the 'Iron Man of India.'. He was, no doubt, an iron man in the sense that one could rely on him for strict and efficient administration. But as a man, to those who had the good fortune of coming into close contact with him, he was kind and considerate. At times, he even became emotional, where his personal friends and followers were concerned. However it goes without saying that, the Sardar had great skill in organising affairs. He knew the way of picking people and putting them in their proper places. Once he judged a man and found him correct he trusted him fully and got him to do anything he wanted.

Questions:

- (a) What lessons do you learn from the life of the Sardar?
 (b) What was Sardar's great skill?
 (c) Give a short summary of the passage.
 (d) Give a suitable title to the passage.

4. Write a paragraph on any one of the following topics:

- (a) Work is worship.
 (b) Importance of Books
 (c) A friend is need is friend indeed.
